PRESS RELEASE - For Immediate Release :

ATTENTION ALL "SNOWBIRDS"

The New Jersey Postal History Society, the Long Island Postal History Society and the Clifton Stamp Society have scheduled a joint Social Meeting/Get-Together at the "APS Americas 99" stamp show in the Orange County Convention Center, Orlando, Florida on the weekend of February 25-28, 1999.

We would also like to invite any and all other State or Regional Postal History Society members, especially those from the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic areas, and any metro New York City area local stamp club members that will be at the show or in the area on vacation or for the winter season to attend the get-together.

We anticipate a very informal gathering, with the agenda to be determined by those in attendance - that might include a brief "Show & Tell" period of interesting items acquired at the show or elsewhere, or a mini-auction and/or trading session of items that are looking for a new home, etc., etc.

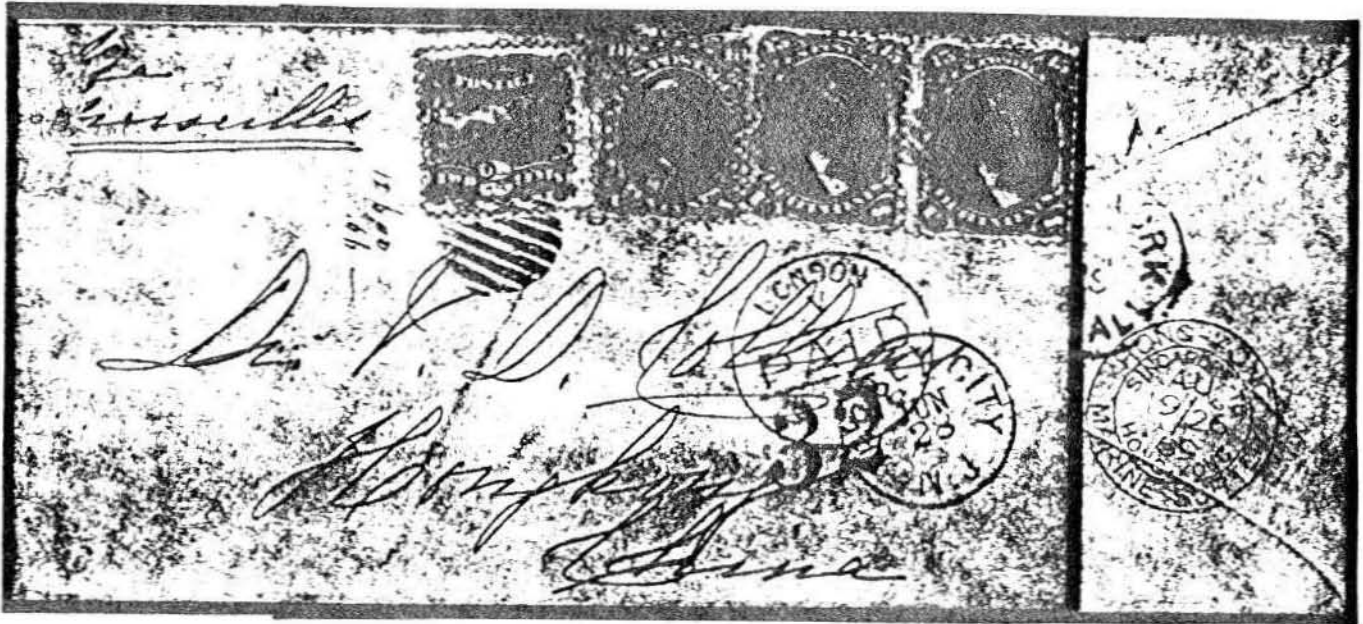

Please check the Official Show Program for exact meeting time and location - as additional information concerning this meeting may not be co-ordinated until we have been assigned a specific date, time and location, no further publicity may be forthcoming. Dear Sir: Take the Victor Tricycle for instance, & suppose you increase the diameter of the 'over wheel on which the power chain revolves, to 3 times its present diameter, will you not get an enormous increase of power & speed? Please ask your master-mechanic's opinion

I have heard you so highly spoken of, that I would like to see your new machine the best in the market.

If it is a superb one, & a strong roadster, I might be able to sell 200 here. We have 400000 mugs & 2 iron mills here, employing 1200 hands. And if I would put machines at say $2. Each chance, I believe I could raffle off quite a number!

Why not call your new machine the "Victor Tricycle?" if it is all you claim, it will be 'Victoric' in more senses than one - in sale &
speed. Hoping to hear from you soon, I am

Sincerely yours

Heirs of Rev. JOHN COWARD, Deceased.

HAVING been empowered by nearly two hundred heirs, as their attorney, after making full searches in England, and ascertaining all the facts in the premises, I report as I find it:—

1st. I find a valuable property at Salford and Hulm, left by William Coward to the church and academy he was founder of, by will, of which I have a copy. I found property going to decay, schools done away with, church and faith not kept up, church rusted out for workshop, family upstairs: the trustees have not carried out his will, therefore it is null and void. The heirs of Rev. John Coward, the only claimants to the property, can be proven by searches, and getting the connecting link between William and Hugh, which can be easily got in England. By appearance of the will, I believe it to have been altered to suit the trustees, recorded, and genuine will destroyed—such is the opinion of parties: trustees indifferent, and not inclined to give any information. I believe their trust can be broken, and the property recovered, as we can connect our family direct to Hugh.

2d. I further made full search in Chancery and Chambers, to ascertain if any order, as appointment, had been recorded, for any one to act as trustee for the heirs in America; found no record of any kind connected with the Coward estate, no claims entered, and is not in Chancery. Finding no more could be done according to the will, without farther searches connecting William to Hugh, I return home for want of means to make such. The will not as expected; if it had been as reported, would have been in full possession now. The only way the property can be recovered, is the way above mentioned.

Since arriving in New York, myself and a friend of the heirs had an interview with D. W. Hendrickson, to give him an opportunity to show some light as to his authority for advertisement of trusteeship, as there was no record in Chancery of such appointment, deeming it right and proper to do so before reporting.

I therefore inform the heirs that I have thoroughly examined all his papers and letters received by him from Mr. Sawyer, his attorney, and find them genuine and correct, with proper stamps and seals affixed by the courts they came from, and mailed by Mr. Sawyer to Red Bank, New Jersey, with English post stamps on them; also, papers showing the changing of names by the family, and searches made by Sawyer, a barrister of the Queens Bench, in getting the genealogy and connecting link, which are all stamped. Also, examined a permit, or consent of the Court of Chancery, for him to advertise for the heirs, to get their authority for appointing him trustee, by his filing bonds in Chancery. This not being an order or appointment in full, and no bonds filed, it was not recorded. Sawyer getting this permit for to advertise, advertised in this way to bring in the heirs more speedily and get the appointment for D. W. Hendrickson, and make out the case, and file in court the claims, and displace those trustees by authority of Chancery.

Through this advertisement all were misled. Supposing the appointment actually given a fraud, (which was not the case), this misunderstanding, not knowing the facts, has caused all the trouble. D. W. Hendrickson, not having full searches and connections of the families until 1869, the will not favorable, said he did not know what to tell, and kept all in mystery; and he not informing any one of the facts, the heirs supposed he intended to defraud them; and after he getting all connections so he could explain, they were in full force acting against him, not knowing the facts, supposed they were right in contending for their own; he, finding them opposing him, declined to inform them, unless they signed his powers. False reports and misunderstandings on both sides made the breach wider, until the heirs determined to know by sending some one. Therefore, if he had explained and the facts been known, this trouble would be avoided. Not knowing the true situation myself until after getting in England, I believed as others did—his not telling the facts.

I believe this property can be recovered by us, by getting the connecting link, which link D. W. Hendrickson has already got, at an expense to himself. It is right he should carry the matter through. The difficulty was caused between him and the heirs solely through misunderstanding. I am satisfied he meant nothing wrong, and will do what is right. This will read the same as mine, and those persons who read it were certainly mistaken in its reading. Mr. D. W. Hendrickson is willing to set all falsehoods right. I shall feel pleased if I can be the means of settling this difficulty, and bringing all together, as friends should be. I saw duplicate drafts of money sent to Sawyer and others, in England, amounting to nearly $2,000; and as the link is connected by D. W. Hendrickson in England, that I will be able to connect the link in this country between the heirs and D. W. Hendrickson.

Further explanation required by the heirs I will give with pleasure.
If all will be satisfactory, I remain,

Yours very respectfully,

S. S. HEN

But how long will it be before I get out of this... it is not to be ... the quicker the better -
to Meriden Conn. a nice little city,
I have dwelt in this for a smart and so witty,
his name is Wallace and Lindley attached,
And at mixing it fills he can't be matched,
I wish soon to receive a good dose of his pills,
Which will cure me of all my troubles and ills,
So stop my pen and haste to my dinner,
Which I hope to enjoy like any other dinner.
