

SHARE YOUR HOMETOWN POST OFFICES: Garden State Postcard Club Checklist

By Doug D’Avino & Arne Englund

This September, the Garden State Postcard Club (GSPCC) will hold its 53rd Annual Show and reissue a revised and updated version of their 1982 New Jersey Post Offices on Postcards checklist.

To produce an issue as complete as possible, GSPCC is asking for NJPHS members' assistance in identifying as many postcards as possible that depict NJ post offices. For the purpose of this checklist, a post office is any building in NJ where you can mail a letter, as designated by the U.S. Government. If the building was a residence, general store or other place of business, as long as it is identified on the card as a post office, either with a sign, or in the card text, it qualifies.

For each postcard, GSPCC will need the following information:

- the full caption text
- publisher's name
- full card number & format (BW, color, real photo, chrome, blue, green or sepia).

Alternately, you can just provide an image or repro copy of BOTH the picture side & the address side of the card (the address side is crucial for publishers' information). Postcard information is needed by August 2012 and may be sent to Chris Wolff, Editor GSPCC Hilites, 44 Beech Avenue, Berkeley Heights, N.J. 07922
